Hello hello,

(the brain)

At the end of this month we will be celebrating Thanksgiving, a holiday all about showing your gratitude for those around you. But as I was thinking, which happens quite often when you're a brain, I decided I shouldn't wait until the end of the month to give thanks. Because I won't see everyone on Thanksgiving day, today I am going to start with my lunch lady. Ms. Mary is so nice and helpful, that I just want to make sure she knows she's appreciated. I made a homemade card saying, "Thanks for your help today and every day! Happy early Thanksgiving!" I hope she likes it!

Think healthy thoughts, Sir Rebrum
