

COLOR ME ORGANWISE

Hey everybody,

Today is my favorite day of the entire season! For many people, it's Christmas, but for me it's Christmas Eve because today is the calm, quiet time I get to spend with my family and grandparents before all the presents are opened and the cooking has to be done. Every Christmas Eve we get together to play games, watch holiday movies, and just hang out with one another. Now if you'll excuse me, I'm off to enjoy my favorite day!

Have a great day,
